Scott Berry is not only a HOF coach but a HOF person in the eyes of those who follow USM baseball and or had the privilege to meet him. His career superlatives speak for themselves and maybe most importantly is the enthusiasm and passion that he is largely responsible for bringing to our program. Sometimes we encounter a player or coach that we all hands down without hesitation can say is HOF worthy today!!!! Scott Berry is that coach and person.

Brett Favre

As a member of the HOF, I would like to recommend one of my closest friends, Scott Berry, for consideration into The Hall.

Scott, as most of u know, just retired as USM's baseball coach as the all time winningest baseball coach n the history of our program.

Setting friendship aside, I of 1968. After the first two games, he pitched more innings in the rest of his 32 starts that y

In Gibson's 34 starts of 1968, he took his don new heights. Gibson set career marks (at the (22) innings pitched (304.2), complete game shutouts (13), WHIP (0.853), and his 1.12 ER/ his career best, but was also the lowest single ERA ever.
