NOTES & ANECDOTES: MAC HAIK

- Mac Haik was a split end who played for the Ole Miss Rebels and the Houston Oilers. The second team All-SEC player and Academic All-SEC and All-American helped lead the Rebels to three straight bowl appearances in 1965, 1966, & 1967. He was the first ever Houston Oiler and 1st NFL player to catch a pass indoors as he snared 2 TD catches against the Kansas City Chiefs in the Houston Astrodome in 1968.

- Mac went by his middle name—Michel—until high school when someone said he cut through football opponents like "Mack the Knife." The name stuck and he was recruited and signed to play at Ole Miss by MSHOF members Coach Johnny Vaught and Bruiser Kinard.

- Mac was inducted into the Ole Miss Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001. He was also inducted into the Ole Miss Alumni Hall of Fame in 2018.
